PERAPlus 457 Plan
Create the future you want.
ENROLLMENT GUIDE
Today, many financial experts agree that you will need approximately 80% of your income to maintain your current way of life in retirement. And while your Colorado PERA Defined Benefit (DB) or Defined Contribution (DC) Plan will contribute to that amount, you may want additional savings.

That’s where the PERAPlus 457 Plan comes into play. A voluntary retirement savings program offered through PERA, the PERAPlus 457 Plan can help you create your plan for the future.

Plan Features

Pre-Tax and Roth Contributions
You may contribute 100% of your eligible compensation, subject to the annual IRS maximum contribution limits. Pre-tax contributions are automatically deducted from your paycheck before taxes are taken out.

If your employer has adopted the Roth option, you may also make Roth contributions. Roth contributions are automatically deducted from your paycheck after taxes have been taken out.

Whether you make pre-tax or Roth contributions, the total amount you may contribute to the PERAPlus 457 Plan is subject to the annual IRS contribution limits (see coperalplus.org for current limits). If you also participate in the PERAPlus 401(k) Plan, contributions to the PERAPlus 457 Plan are separate and subject to their own maximum contribution limit. If you need help determining how much to save, use the retirement planning calculators online at coperalplus.org.

Catch-Up Contributions

Age 50 Catch-Up
If you are age 50 or older and contributing the maximum amount allowable to the Plan, you may contribute an additional catch-up contribution, up to the annual IRS limit.

Special Catch-Up
You may be permitted to make extra catch-up contributions to the Plan in the three years prior to attaining normal retirement age. The total amount of contributions (normal and catch-up) cannot exceed IRS contribution limits. The amount available for the special catch-up depends on how much you under-contributed in previous years.

Employer Contributions
Your employer may choose to match a percentage of the amount you contribute to the Plan (up to the yearly IRS total contribution maximum). Your employer may also make discretionary contributions on your behalf. Any matching employer contributions are always made on a pre-tax basis, regardless of whether you are contributing on a pre-tax or Roth basis. Contact your employer to see if your employer provides any contributions.

Benefits of Saving With the PERAPlus Program

Benefit From Investing Regularly
Making regular contributions to the PERAPlus 457 Plan allows you to take advantage of a strategy called dollar-cost averaging. You buy shares of a fund by investing the same amount of money on a regular schedule, regardless of the market price of the investment. Dollar-cost averaging allows you to buy more shares when the price is lower and fewer shares when the price is higher. The result is a potentially lower average cost per share compared to a lump-sum investment.

Saving Early Pays Off
Saving early with the PERAPlus 457 Plan lets you take advantage of compounding, as illustrated in the chart on the right. The longer you have to save, the more time your money will have to grow.

Roth Option
Unlike traditional PERAPlus 457 pre-tax contributions, Roth contributions are taxed before the money is contributed to the Plan. Any earnings on Roth contributions grow tax-free and distributions from your PERAPlus 457 Roth account may be tax-free for federal, state, and local income tax purposes provided they are qualified distributions (see pages 12-13).

The overall benefit of the Roth option will be realized when you retire since the money in that account has already been taxed. In contrast, distributions from the traditional PERAPlus 457 pre-tax account will be subject to income tax in the year the money is distributed to you, unless you elect to roll it over to another eligible retirement plan. This allows you to plan your tax strategy for your retirement Plan distributions.

Comparing the PERAPlus Roth Option to a Roth IRA
- You may make Roth contributions to your PERAPlus 457 Roth account regardless of your income level.
- You can contribute more money to the PERAPlus 457 Roth account than a Roth Individual Retirement Account (IRA). The annual contribution limit for the Roth account in the PERAPlus 457 Plan is significantly higher than the annual contribution limit of a Roth IRA.

- There are no required minimum distributions from a Roth IRA. However, PERAPlus 457 Roth required minimum distributions must be taken according to IRS guidelines. If you do not take your required minimum distribution, a 50% IRS penalty would apply to all amounts not taken on time.
- A Roth IRA does not have withdrawal restrictions (you can withdraw your Roth IRA funds at any time, subject to applicable taxes), while withdrawals from your PERAPlus 457 Roth account are limited to termination of employment, unforeseeable emergency, death, or attainment of age 59½ while employed.
- PERAPlus 457 Roth amounts may be rolled into another 401(k), 403(b), or governmental 457(b) plan that has a Roth feature, or to a Roth IRA. However, if the amounts are rolled to a Roth IRA, the amounts are subject to the five-year taxable period of that Roth IRA.
Roth and Pre-Tax Comparison

The following chart highlights the differences between the tax-deferred and Roth accounts within the PERAPlus Plans that may be available to you. The Roth option is only available if your employer has adopted it.

Pick a Path

PERAdvantage investment options allow you to select your investments by choosing one of the two paths below that best describes your level of investment knowledge. The same PERAdvantage investment options are available for both pre-tax and Roth contributions.

I am not sure how to invest.

If you feel like you don’t have the time or knowledge to make investment decisions, consider this option.

- Choose a Target Retirement Date Fund. You can make one investment decision by choosing one fund, based on your expected retirement date and date of birth (see chart below).

Generally speaking, Target Retirement Date Funds target a certain date range for retirement, or the date the participant plans to start withdrawing money. Participants can select the fund that corresponds to their target retirement date. Target Retirement Date Funds are designed to rebalance to a more conservative approach as the target retirement date nears. An investment in the Target Retirement Date Fund is not guaranteed at any time, including on or after the target date.

About risk:
Asset allocation, diversification, dollar-cost averaging, and/or rebalancing do not ensure a profit or protect against loss.

Bond prices generally fall when interest rates rise (and vice versa) and are subject to risks, including changes in credit quality, market valuations, inflation, liquidity and default. The interest from Treasury inflation-protected securities (TIPS) is adjusted periodically according to the Consumer Price Index. The return from TIPS may understate the actual rate of inflation due to changes in the bond’s underlying price. A stable value fund is not federally guaranteed and has interest rate, inflation and credit risks. Guarantees are subject to the terms and conditions of the group annuity contract or funding agreement and the claims-paying ability of the insurer.

Stocks may decline in value. Real asset investments may be affected by natural disasters and political and economic developments. Specialty funds generally invest in a limited number of companies and may be more volatile than a more diversified fund. Securities of small and mid-size companies may be more volatile than those of larger, more established companies. Foreign securities involve risks, such as currency fluctuations, economic changes and political developments. These risks may be heightened in emerging markets, which may also experience liquidity risk. Asset allocation investment options are subject to the risks of their underlying investments.

In-Plan Conversions
Roth conversions are available from the pre-tax portion of the PERAPlus 457 Plan. Money may be converted to Roth funds at the participant’s direction. Converted amounts are taxable in the year converted. Once a conversion has been processed, the funds cannot be changed back to pre-tax funds. Only two conversions can be made each calendar year.

Rolling Over Money From a Former Employer’s Retirement Plan
Pre-Tax Account
You can roll over money from a former employer’s retirement plan to your PERAPlus 457 Plan. You can also roll money from an IRA to your Plan account, provided that the entire balance in the IRA is attributable to pre-tax contributions and earnings.

To Roll Over Money:
Contact Empower at 833-4-COPERA (833-426-7372). Consider all your options and their features and fees before moving money between accounts.

Quarterly Account Statements
Each quarter, a statement summarizing your account status, including total account balance, investment selections, and the current value of each investment, will be available online.
Fees

The PERAPlus 401(k)/457 and DC Plans charge the following administrative fees:

- PERAPlus 401(k) Plan: $1.00/month
- PERAPlus 457 Plan: $1.50/month
- PERA DC Plan: $1.00/month

There is not a separate administrative fee if you contribute to the Roth account in addition to the pre-tax account.

Participants will also pay a Plan administrative asset-based fee of 0.03% for all assets in the Plans. That fee is paid directly from your PERAdvantage funds. In addition, participants pay asset-based investment management fees which vary for each investment option (see the Fund Summaries on pages 8-9).

Plan administration asset-based fees, and Plan administration flat fees are used by PERA for Plan expenses including Plan recordkeeping, custodial services, consulting, and internal PERA administrative expenses.

A complete fee schedule is available on coperaplus.org. Costs are only one of several factors that participants should consider when making investment decisions. The cumulative effect of costs can substantially reduce the growth of a participant’s account. Fees are subject to change at any time.

Current fee information is available on coperaplus.org. Fees are subject to change at any time.

Self-Directed Brokerage Account

If you have an SDBA, you will pay an annual $50 Self-Directed Brokerage fee. The Plan administration asset-based fee in the SDBA will be paid directly from your PERAdvantage funds. Additional trading costs charged by TD Ameritrade may apply.

Loans

If you take a loan from your PERAPlus 457 Plan pre-tax or Roth accounts, you will pay a $75 non-refundable loan application fee for each loan. The interest rate for loans is the prime rate as quoted in The Wall Street Journal on the last business day of the prior month, plus 1%

Professional Management

If you enroll in the Professional Management Program, the Empower Advisory Group, LLC will manage your account for you. An annual fee will be assessed quarterly and will be approximately $3.75 per month for every $10,000 in your account. Accessing Money From Your Account

Although the primary function of your PERAPlus 457 Plan is saving for your retirement, we understand there are times you may need access to your money.

Distribution Options for Active Employees

Qualified Birth or Adoption
You may be eligible to take up to $5,000 in a year that you experience a birth or adoption.

Age 59½ Withdrawals
- If you are age 59½ or older, you may begin taking withdrawals from your account.
- Withdrawals may be subject to 20% federal tax withholding unless the funds are rolled over to another qualified plan or IRA. Withdrawals from the PERAPlus 457 Roth account are tax free as long as it is a qualified distribution.

Rollover Withdrawals
- Taken from your rollover account.
- You must first withdraw after-tax account balances from your non-Roth account.

Unforeseeable Emergency Withdrawals
You may be able to withdraw money from your PERAPlus 457 Plan for the following circumstances:
- An illness or accident involving you; your beneficiary; your spouse or your beneficiary’s spouse; or your dependent or beneficiary’s dependent.
- Loss of your or your beneficiary’s property due to casualty (including the need to rebuild a home following damage to a home not otherwise covered by homeowner’s insurance, such as the result of a natural disaster).
- The imminent foreclosure of or eviction from your primary residence or your beneficiary’s primary residence.
- To pay for medical expenses for you; your beneficiary; your spouse or your beneficiary’s spouse; or your dependent or beneficiary’s dependent, including nonrefundable deductibles, as well as the cost of prescription drug medication.
- To pay for funeral expenses of your spouse; your beneficiary; your beneficiary’s spouse; or your dependent or beneficiary’s dependent.

Documentation of an unforeseeable emergency withdrawal must be provided. The amount withdrawn cannot exceed the amount needed to satisfy the emergency plus any federal and state income taxes and penalties. You must exhaust all your loan options before applying for an unforeseeable emergency withdrawal.

Taking a Loan From Your PERAPlus 457 Plan Account
You can borrow from your PERAPlus 457 Plan pre-tax and Roth accounts and pay back the loan, plus interest, through automatic checking or savings account deductions.

- There are two loan types available: general and residential.
- You may borrow a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum of $50,000 or 50% of your account balance reduced by your highest outstanding loan balance during the past 12 months. For example:
  - If your balance is $1,000–$10,000, you may borrow the entire balance (less the $75 loan fee and 5% for market fluctuations).
  - If your balance is $10,001–$20,000, you may borrow up to $10,000 (less the $75 loan fee and 5% for market fluctuations).
  - If your balance is $20,001 and greater, you may borrow 50% of the balance, not to exceed $50,000.
- You may have a maximum of two outstanding loans at one time; if you default on a loan, you are not eligible to take another loan.
- A $75 nonrefundable loan application fee applies for each loan taken.

To request a loan:
- Apply through your coperaplus.org account.
- Download a loan application available on coperaplus.org.
- Call 833-4-COPERA (833-426-7372) and request a loan application.

* Withdrawals from the Plan may be subject to 20% federal tax withholding. Ordinary income taxes may apply.

 Unforeseeable emergency withdrawals are subject to voluntary tax withholding on the distribution. However, ordinary income tax will apply. State and local taxes may also apply. For the specific tax consequences of your withdrawal, please consult your tax professional. Withdrawals from the 457 Roth account are tax free as long it is a qualified distribution.

 The interest rate for loans is the prime rate as quoted in The Wall Street Journal on the first of the month, plus 1%.
Roth Withdrawals

Distributions from your PERAPlus 457 Roth account may be tax-free from federal, state, and local income tax provided they are qualified distributions. A qualified distribution must meet the following criteria:

1. The first Roth contribution has been in the Plan for at least five tax years (or sooner, if assets were in a Roth account in another employer-sponsored plan and then rolled over into the Plan), and
2. The participant is either at least age 59½ or disabled, or the distribution is to be made to a beneficiary after the participant’s death.

Tax Considerations

Any money withdrawn from your PERAPlus 457 Plan pre-tax account is subject to ordinary federal and state income tax.

Distribution Options for Terminated Employees

When you leave PERA-covered employment, you have the following choices regarding the money in your Plan account:

- Leave the money in the Plan (you must start distributions according to IRS guidelines)
- Request installment payments or a lump-sum distribution
- Roll over the pre-tax balance to another qualified plan, 403(b), governmental 457 plan, or IRA
- Roll over the Roth balance to a Roth IRA, Roth account in a 401(k), Roth account in a 403(b), or a Roth account in a governmental 457(b) plan
- Consider using a portion of your account balance to create lifetime income through immediate annuities or a qualified longevity annuity contract (QLAC).

Please contact Empower at 833-4-COPERA (833-426-7372) for more information

Partial withdrawals can be taken by participants who are retired, or who have terminated all PERA-covered employment. There is no minimum withdrawal amount.

You can elect to have your lump-sum distribution rolled over to a qualified plan, 403(b) plan, 457 plan, or IRA (if the plan accepts rollover money from other plans). If you elect a direct rollover, you will not owe federal income taxes on your distribution in the year it is paid.

Notes:
Periodic payments of 10 years or more are not eligible for rollover. You may transfer pre-tax Plan funds to purchase service credit. Contact PERA for more information on purchasing service credit.

Distributions from the Plan may be subject to federal, state, and local tax withholding. The distribution provisions in the PERAPlus 457 Plan may be different than the distribution provisions in other plans. Consult your tax professional or financial planner before deciding how to take your distribution.
Special Circumstances

Domestic Relations Orders (DRO)

A DRO for the PERAPlus 457 Plan may be used to divide your 457 account in a marital dissolution. If PERA receives a valid DRO for your PERAPlus 457 Plan account, a one-time payment will be made to your former spouse in accordance with the terms of the DRO.

If you are contemplating a DRO for your PERAPlus 457 Plan account in conjunction with your marital dissolution, please contact PERA or visit copera.org to obtain the Domestic Relations Order packet, which contains detailed instructions and the DRO forms you must use.

Military Leave

If you missed contributions to the PERAPlus 457 Plan while on military leave, you may have increased PERAPlus 457 contributions deducted from your paycheck, upon re-employment, to make up for contributions missed while on leave. You may take up to three times the period you were absent from PERA-covered employment to make up missed contributions due to military leave. This make-up period cannot exceed five years.

If you are making Roth contributions upon re-employment, they are treated as made in the taxable year of qualified military service that you designate as the year to which the contributions relate.

More information is in the PERA Leaves and Sabbaticals brochure, available at copera.org.

I have completed, understand and agree to all pages of this Beneficiary Designation form. Subject to the terms of the Plan, I am making the above beneficiary designations for my vested account in the event of my death. I acknowledge and agree that it is my responsibility to monitor the beneficiary designations in my account and to update the beneficiary designations as I deem necessary upon a change in marital status, death of a beneficiary or any other change that may impact my beneficiary designations.

If I have more than one primary beneficiary, the account will be divided as specified. If a primary beneficiary predeceases me, his or her benefit will be allocated to the surviving primary beneficiaries. Contingent beneficiaries will receive a benefit only if there is no surviving primary beneficiary, as specified. If a contingent beneficiary predeceases me, his or her benefit will be allocated to the surviving contingent beneficiaries. If I fail to designate beneficiaries, amounts will be paid pursuant to the terms of the Plan or applicable law. This designation is effective upon execution and delivery to Service Provider. If any information is missing, additional information may be required prior to recording my designation. This designation supersedes all prior designations. Beneficiaries will share equally if percentages are not provided and any amounts unpaid upon death will be divided equally. Primary and contingent beneficiaries must separately total 100%. The percentages can be divided up to two decimal points (Example: 33.33%).

I understand that my divorce, annulment, or any dissolution or declaration of invalidity of my marriage will NOT revoke the beneficiary named above unless I revoke the designation by submitting a beneficiary designation. Colorado Revised Statute section 15-11-804 does not act to revoke a spouse’s designation as a beneficiary in this plan.

Any person who presents a false or fraudulent claim is subject to criminal and civil penalties.

This guide contains general information about the PERAPlus 457 Plan. Your rights, benefits, and obligations as a 457 Plan participant are governed by Title 24, Article 51 of the Colorado Revised Statutes, the Rules of the Colorado Public Employees’ Retirement Association, and PERA’s 457 and Defined Contribution Plan and Trust Document, which take precedence over any interpretations in this guide.
